

Restored by Love Ministries
Online Community Moderator
Service Description and Expectations

Purpose: To function in accordance to Restored by Love Ministries purpose. To lead and encourage young women in the message of love, hope and truth through the teachings of Jesus Christ; focusing on a true heart change in young women to truly love Christ, love others, and walk in freedom.

Qualifications:

- Mature, Christian believer 16 years old or over who is able to teach the Word of God. Some exceptions as deemed appropriate by the Founder/Ministry Partners can be made for those 15 years old but would like to serve as an online community moderator.
- Desire to see young women walk in the promise and purpose that God intended for them.
- Ability to communicate well to young women through email.
- Love for the brokenhearted.
- Must faithfully attend and be involved in the ministry of their local church.
- Operate and navigate the internet efficiently and has email access.
- Must be able to commit to serve with Restored by Love for at least 3 months.

Primary Duties and Responsibilities:

- Provide guidance, discipleship and encouragement to young women via Restored by Love Ministries forums and chat room.
- Visit and post in the forum at least 2 times a week.
- Moderate at least one chat a month in the Restored by Love Ministries chat room and communicate when you will be holding chat to the Founder of RBL so that she will be able to make everyone aware.
- Faithfully pray for the mentees as the Lord leads.
- Stay in communication with the founder and/or ministry partners of Restored by Love Ministries if any issues arise during the process or if you have a life circumstance that arises that makes you unable to maintain your commitment temporarily or permanently.

Expectations:

- Will promote and follow the vision and values of Restored by Love Ministries
- Daily Prayer for overall ministry and those involved in all aspects of the ministry
- Evidence of continued growth in the Lord by maintaining a close relationship with Him through faithful church attendance, regular prayer and the studying and faithful reading of scripture
- Will establish safe boundaries with the girls that we serve.

Accountable To:
Founder/Director of Restored by Love Ministries
Ministry Partner

